The magazine for Pet Food producers and their suppliers.

Pet Food Supplement is aimed at pet food producers, their suppliers and others with an interest in the pet food industry.

Every issue includes a mixture of full-length articles and shorter contributions which together provide technical information, relevant company and product news, market developments, a forum for discussion and well-informed comment and opinion.

Pet Food Supplement is published twice a year.

If you are based in Europe and work for a producer of pet foods then you are entitled to receive the magazine free of charge – simply complete this registration form, detach and return by post or fax to Pentlands Publishing Ltd at the above address. Alternatively, send your details by e-mail.

If you do not qualify for a free copy but would, nevertheless, like to see future issues, you can subscribe at the modest rate of £12 in Europe or £14 outside Europe for the year. Tick the subscription box below and we will forward you a subscription form.
